

Shift Corporate Coach Program™

Be a Better Leader by Building your Business Coaching Skills

Successful executives don't manage work, they lead people — and coaching is one of the most effective leadership approaches. In fact, 69 per cent of global organizations cultivate a coaching culture.¹

Develop or enhance your business coaching skills through the Shift Corporate Coach Program™. You'll learn the skills other leaders are using to generate:

- Improved productivity, creativity and innovation
- Less conflict
- Faster response to managing and implementing change

Be Eligible to Receive your Coaching Designation

The Shift Corporate Coach Program™ is tailored to business leaders in a business context. Learn practical skills you can put to work in your organization right away through in-person sessions and online coaching clinics.

Our three-part training program includes:

Learning Shift: Take a deep-dive into the fundamental coaching skills, as well as the Shift Coaching Model, through a three-day, in-person program in a safe, fun environment.

Transformation Shift: Bi-weekly online coaching clinics over eight weeks let you review the fundamental skills and coaching model and practice using them with a peer coach.

Practice Shift: Complete your practice hours with a Shift mentor coach and receive feedback on your progress, plus continue practice-coaching with an assigned peer.

"The SCCP experience was one of the most important, practical and relevant programs I have ever been through. I wish I had this kind of hands on, reality based coaching training earlier in my career. I recommend any manager or leader take this program. They and their team will be stronger as a result."
